

2025 SANE-A Training

Learn how to perform the medical forensic examination for those who have been sexually assaulted.

For course-specific information contact:

Deb Wetherelt, RN, SANE-A
Idaho SANE/SART Coordinator
forensic.nursing@isp.idaho.gov

2025 Courses

March 17-21	Lewiston, Idaho
April 14-18	Post Falls, Idaho
April 28-May 2	Grangeville, Idaho
May 12-16	Gooding, Idaho
June 2-6	Driggs, Idaho
July 21-25	Bonnars Ferry, Idaho
August 4-8	Moscow, Idaho
September 15-19	Preston, Idaho
October 6-10	OPEN

Some topics covered include:

- History of forensic nursing
- Standards and Ethics of forensic nursing
- Populations affected and served
- Trauma-response Behaviors and Trauma-informed responses
- Forensic photography
- Consent and history-taking
- Medical Forensic Examination
- Prophylaxis for sexually-transmitted infections and pregnancy
- Evidence Collection
- Chain of Custody
- Fact Witness and Expert testimony
- Collaboration with Victim Advocates, Law Enforcement, Prosecutors, and more!

To register for any class, send an email to the Idaho SANE/SART Coordinator at forensic.nursing@isp.idaho.gov with the following information:

- Name and Credentials (BSN, RN, CEN, TNCC, etc.)
- Mailing address and phone
- Email (personal is preferred unless you check your work email daily)
- Organization and department where you are currently employed.
- State & number of nursing license

