

STI Medication Quiz

1. What medication is used to as a prophylaxis for gonorrhea? _____
2. What is the dose for the medication in question #1? _____
3. What medication may be given to prevent pregnancy after sexual assault? _____
4. How does the medication in question #3 work?

5. What is the medication used for prophylaxis for chlamydia? _____
6. What is the dose for the medication in question #5? _____
7. What medication cannot be given if the patient has recently ingested alcohol? _____
Why? _____
8. How long must the patient wait after ingesting alcohol to take the medication named in question #7? _____
9. What condition are we trying to prevent when we give the sexually assaulted patient Flagyl? _____
10. How soon after suspected exposure to HIV must the antiviral be taken? _____
11. What medication could possibly prevent HPV and its complications? _____