

CSRU call out criteria

As a general rule, the CSRU will respond to the following situations:

- ◆ Homicides or questionable death investigations
- ◆ Crimes of violence, aggravated battery, rape, kidnapping, etc.
- ◆ Major crimes against property
- ◆ Clandestine drug labs

Requests for crime scene investigation or assistance should be directed to the Detective Captain of the local regional office as quickly as possible after a crime has been discovered for the best possible response.

The Detective Captain will make an assessment of the resources needed based on the information available and make the arrangements for personnel and equipment to respond appropriately for the needs of the particular case.

Levels of assistance that can be requested:

- ◆ Complete investigation of crime
- ◆ Assistance only: i.e. Crime scene, latent fingerprints, evidence collection, etc.
- ◆ Crime scene processing with ISP investigative support

The Detective Captain will continue to coordinate with the agency to ensure continuity of the investigation.

How to call out the CSRU

1. Secure the scene
2. Call the local Detective Captain
